

Old Cestrefeldians' Trust Student Award

June 2017

At the recent Chesterfield College Awards evening the Old Cestrefeldians' Trust sponsored an award for a student who has demonstrated tenacity and resilience in pursuit of their studies, progressing from a level 3 course onto university-level study.

A level student, Charles Blagdon, age 23, from Ashover, was named the winner of this award and presented with a prize of £200.00 by Tom Roberts (Trustee) to help support his studies.

