OLD CESTREFELDIANS IN THE
GREAT WAR

ROLL OF HONOUR

The Old Cestrefeldians' Trust has commissioned a printed booklet listing the Roll of Honour (with photographs and pen-portraits) of the eighty-three Old Boys who gave their lives in the service of their Country in the First World War and are listed on the memorial plaque at Sheffield Road.

The original research was undertaken by Mike Briggs when he was a pupil between 1980 and 85. He is now Professor of Genetics at Newcastle University. This has since been supplemented by John Drabble, editor of the OC's website, who added relevant extracts from the Cestrefeldian magazine about their times at the School.

This has now all come together as a handsome 62 page booklet, produced by the Copy and Print Centre, Chesterfield, which is available to buy at a subsidised price of £5.00, plus £1.00 p&p, if unable to collect personally.
